What is LovePath 911?

LovePath 911 (LP911) is an intense turnaround weekend for marriages that are struggling or in trouble.

What happens in LovePath 911?

In addition to the LovePath model, LP911 consists of several segments, each building on the one before. Segments include:

- assessing your relationship as it is now
- discovering how to stop hurting each other
- gaining revealing insight into yourself
- analyzing what would truly fulfill you in life, individually and/or as a couple
- dealing with anger
- overcoming hurt and pain
- learning new communication methods
- requiring and receiving respect
- forgiving
- achieving win/win solutions that make each of you happy
- understanding and mastering personality conflicts
- understanding and overcoming extramarital affairs
- solving sexual conflict or discontent
- and more.

Most importantly, LP911 introduces the LovePath – a remarkable model that demonstrates how people fall in love, fall out of love, and how they can fall in love again if they follow the path.

Is this workshop a type of counseling or therapy?

Though workshop leaders typically have advanced degrees in psychiatry, psychology, or marriage and family therapy, this workshop is not counseling or therapy. It actually works on a different – remarkably different – level. That's why many counselors and therapists send couples to the workshop. It's also why many couples that have not had success in counseling or therapy come to us.

Who leads the workshop?

Joe Beam designed his first weekend turnaround workshop for crisis couples in 1999. He certifies only leaders that he personally approves after training and working with them. Through 2010, Joe personally will lead all LP911 workshops.

Who is Joe Beam?

Joe founded and led one of the largest marriage organizations in America. More than 100,000 people have enrolled in courses, workshops, and seminars he designed and developed.

You may have seen him on nationwide media such as

- NBC's Today Show
- ABC's Good Morning America
- Focus on the Family Radio
- The Montel Williams Show
- NBC's Weekend Today Show
- The Morning Show with Mike and Juliet
- Better Homes and Gardens magazine
- People magazine
- MSNBC online
- and many other TV, radio, magazines, and newspapers

How successful is this workshop?

Since 1999, three of four couples who attend save their marriages. That holds true even if one or both do not wish to be there or to save their marriages. Some come to ease their consciences. Others come to make their children, parents, friends, or ministers happy. Some come with full intention of leaving their spouse for their lover and come only to get a better deal in the divorce. No matter the reason they come, our success rate is still 3 of 4 couples.

What if one of us is in love with someone else?

Quite a few couples attend LP911 while one or both partners are in love with someone else. So why would you come if one or both love someone else?

1. If children are involved, you need to find a way to get along with each other even if you divorce.
2. You'll have a clearer conscience if you take at least three days to examine your current marriage before you leave it.
3. You may discover that there is an unknown, but very real factor that is affecting your view of your spouse and of your lover. Regardless of your ultimate decision, knowledge of this hidden factor will benefit you greatly.
4. You will have a better future – even if you divorce – if you learn why this marriage failed and what to do to make sure you never fail again.
5. The best reason of all is that though you may not be able to imagine it – and think that you don't even want it – you may learn to fall in love with each other again and have a wonderful future together.

Is there a refund if the workshop doesn't work for us?

If you both attend the entire workshop, both participate in every exercise and activity, and at the end of the workshop both sign a document stating that it wasn't worth your investment, we will refund what you personally paid LovePath International, Inc. less a designated administrative fee.

What if I want to come but my spouse doesn't?

It's not unusual that one mate wants to come to LP911 but the other does not. If you would like more information on how you may get your spouse to come, email us at help@marriagehelper.com and we will email you a short document that will help.

What are the workshop hours?

The three-day workshop is Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. We meet from 8 a.m. (sharp!) each morning until 6:30 p.m. each evening on Friday and Saturday. On Sunday, we meet from 8 a.m. to 3:45 p.m.

How much is the workshop?

Others charge $4,500 and more for their marriage intensives. Even with our phenomenal success rate, we are proud to offer this workshop for a fraction of their fees. The value of what you get from us is far more than the enrollment fee and also is:

- Much less than the costs associated with divorce: attorney's fees, court costs, alimony, child support
- Much less than the costs of having two residences (his and hers), utilities, etc.
- Much less than the costs of assets you lose as you divide them in legal separation or divorce
- Much less than the equivalent amount of counseling or therapy
- Much less than the costs of therapy or counseling for your children if your separation or divorce causes them behavioral or mood difficulties

What if we cannot afford the workshop?

Contact us to explore potential alternatives, based on your unique financial resources.

And don't forget our money back guarantee.

We care and we want to help.

Don't bypass this workshop because of the time required or the money involved. The small investment of three days and the low enrollment fee is minimal compared to what you will receive in return. If you have any questions, please email us at help@marriagehelper.com
